CHAPTER 1

TEST IN CAPS

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —
 - “appointed day” means the date of commencement of this Act;
 - “Authority” means the Energy Market Authority of Singapore established under section 3.

Common seal

- 3.—(1) The Authority shall have a common seal and such seal may from time to time be broken, changed, altered or made anew as the Authority thinks fit.

(2) All deeds and other documents requiring the seal of the Authority shall be sealed with the common seal of the Authority.

(3) All instruments to which the common seal is affixed shall be signed by any 2 members generally or specially authorised by the Authority for the purpose or by one member and the Chief Executive.

(4) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the common seal of the Authority affixed to any document and shall presume that it was duly affixed.

Constitution of Board

4.—(1) The Board shall consist of the following members:

- (a) a Chairman; and
- (b) such other members, not being less than 5 or more than 10, as the Minister may from time to time determine.

(2) The First Schedule shall have effect with respect to the Board, its members and proceedings.

Chapter 2

Powers of Authority

5.—(1) The Authority shall have power to do anything for the purpose of discharging its functions and duties under this Act or any other written law, or which is incidental or conducive to the discharge of those functions and duties and, in particular, may —

- (a) design and administer systems for the granting of licences, permits and approvals;
- (b) develop codes of practice relating to content or technical standards for media services or to standards of fair market conduct in any media industry, and monitor compliance with such codes;
- (c) carry on such businesses and do such things as may arise out of the activities of the Authority or as may be necessary

- or expedient for the purpose of turning to account any property or rights of the Authority;
- (d) incorporate companies for the purpose of performing things ancillary to its functions or duties;
 - (e) with the approval of the Minister, enter into joint ventures or partnerships with other media authorities, international agencies or private organisations for the purpose of promoting media services;
 - (f) with the approval of the Minister, form or participate in the formation of any company, partnership or joint venture as a shareholder or partner or in any other capacity;
 - (g) engage in research, technology development studies or technical co-operation projects related to or connected with the agri-food and veterinary sectors;
 - (h) enter into such contracts as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of discharging its functions or duties;
 - (i) become a member or an affiliate of any international body, the functions, objects or duties of which are similar to those of the Authority;
 - (j) acquire or dispose of, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, any property, whether movable or immovable, which the Authority thinks necessary or expedient for the purpose of carrying out its functions or duties;
 - (k) use all the property of the Authority, whether movable or immovable, in such manner as the Authority may think expedient, including the raising of loans by mortgaging such property;
 - (l) subscribe for or acquire any securities, stocks and shares of an incorporated company or other body corporate, procure its admission to membership of an incorporated company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital, promote the formation of an incorporated company or participate in the promotion of such company or acquire an undertaking or part thereof;

- (m) engage alone or in conjunction with other corporations in the production, manufacture or sale of equipment, whether in Singapore or elsewhere;
 - (n) receive grants, donations or contributions from any source, or raise funds by all lawful means and apply such funds for any of its functions or duties;
 - (o) provide training schemes, whether by itself or with the co-operation of other persons or bodies as the Authority thinks fit, for the officers and employees of the Authority and others concerned with media services;
 - (p) grant or guarantee loans to officers or employees of the Authority for any purpose specifically approved by the Authority;
 - (q) provide recreational facilities and promote recreational activities for, and activities conducive to, the welfare of officers and employees of the Authority and members of their families;
 - (r) make provision for gratuities, pensions, allowances or other benefits for officers or employees, or former officers or employees, of the Authority or its predecessors;
 - (s) provide financial grant, aid or assistance to any person for all or any of the purposes of this Act or any other written law;
 - (t) charge fees or commissions for services rendered by the Authority or for the use of any facilities of the Authority;
 - (u) specify, by notification in the Gazette, all the accreditation, certification or inspection marks of the Authority for use in relation to any function of the Authority, and control the use of such marks;
 - (v) lease, let, develop or otherwise utilise any property movable or immovable, vested in or acquired by the Authority on such terms and conditions as the Authority thinks fit;

- (w) provide bursaries, scholarships and training grants in the field of land administration and management;
 - (x) provide training for employees of the Authority and to award scholarships or otherwise pay for such training; and
 - (y) do anything incidental to any of its functions or powers.

(2) This section shall not be construed as limiting any power of the Authority conferred by or under any other written law.

(3) The Authority shall furnish the Minister information with respect to its property and activities in such manner and at such times as the Minister may require.

Subdivision (2) — Can this go here

Directions by Minister

6.—(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority or any public telecommunication licensee, give to the Authority or licensee, as the case may be, such directions as the Minister thinks fit as to the exercise by the Authority or that licensee of its functions under this Act or other written law.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), if it appears to the Minister to be requisite or expedient to do so —

- (a) on the occurrence of any public emergency, in the public interest or in the interests of public security, national defence, or relations with the government of another country; or
- (b) in order —
 - (i) to discharge or facilitate the discharge of an obligation binding on the Government by virtue of its being a member of an international organisation or a party to an international agreement;
 - (ii) to attain or facilitate the attainment of any other object the attainment of which is in the opinion of the Minister requisite or expedient in view of the Government being a member of an international organisation or a party to an international agreement;

or

- (iii) to enable the Government to become a member of an international organisation or a party to an international agreement,

the Minister may, after consultation with the Authority or any public telecommunication licensee, give such directions to the Authority or that licensee as are necessary in the circumstances of the case.

- (3) Any direction given under subsection (1) or (2) may include —

- (a) provisions for the prohibition or regulation of such use of telecommunications in all cases or of such cases as may be considered necessary;
- (b) provisions for the taking of, the control of or the usage for official purposes of, all or any such telecommunication system and equipment; and
- (c) provisions for the stopping, delaying and censoring of messages and the carrying out of any other purposes which the Minister thinks necessary.

(4) Nothing in any direction given under subsection (3) shall apply to the use of any telecommunications for the purpose of making or answering signals of distress.

(5) The Authority and any public telecommunication licensee shall give effect to any direction given to it under subsection (1) or (2) notwithstanding any other duty imposed on the Authority or the licensee by or under this Act or other written law.

(6) The Authority and any public telecommunication licensee shall not disclose any direction given to it under subsection (1) or (2) if the Minister notifies that person that the Minister is of the opinion that the disclosure of the directions is against the public interest.

- (7) The Minister may —

- (a) pay compensation for any damage caused to a public telecommunication licensee by reason of its compliance with the directions of the Minister under subsection (3)(b);

or

- (b) make grants to public telecommunication licensees for defraying or contributing towards any losses which they may sustain by reason of their compliance with the directions of the Minister under any other provisions of this section.

(8) Any sums required by the Minister for paying compensation or making grants under subsection (7) shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

(9) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency or as to whether any act done under this section was in the public interest or in the interests of public security, national defence or relations with the government of another country, a certificate signed by the Minister shall be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

Division 2 — Testing again

Delegation of powers

7.—(1) The Agency may, from time to time, in respect of a specified matter or class of matters, by writing, delegate to any member, officer or committee of the Agency any of its powers under this Act or under any other written law, except —

- (a) the power of delegation conferred by this section; and
(b) the power to make any subsidiary legislation.

(2) Every member, officer or committee purporting to act pursuant to a delegation under this section shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(3) A delegation under this section shall be revocable at will, and no delegated person shall prevent the exercise of any power, function or duty by the Agency.

Application for grant or renewal of licence

8.—(1) An application for the grant or renewal of a licence shall be —

- (a) made to the Authority in such form and manner as may be prescribed;
- (b) in the case of an application for the renewal of a licence, made not later than one month or such other period before the expiry of the licence (referred to in this section as the late renewal period) as the Authority may prescribe; and

- (c) accompanied by a non-refundable application fee of a prescribed amount, which shall be paid in the prescribed manner.
- (2) The Authority may require an applicant to furnish it with such information or documents as it considers necessary in relation to the application.
- (3) Where a person submits an application for the renewal of his licence before the late renewal period, the licence shall continue in force until the date on which the licence is renewed or the application for its renewal is refused, as the case may be.

(4) Where a person submits an application for the renewal of his licence during the late renewal period, the Authority may impose a late renewal fee not exceeding $100 for every day or part thereof that the application for renewal is late, subject to a maximum of $3,000.

PART 2

YOU LOSE

Modification of conditions of licence

9.—(1) Subject to this section, the Authority may modify the conditions of a licence.

(2) Before making any modification to the conditions of a licence under this section, the Authority shall give notice to the licensee concerned —

- (a) stating that the Authority proposes to make the modification in the manner specified in the notice; and
- (b) specifying the time (not being less than 28 days from the date of service of notice on the licensees) within which written representations with respect to the proposed modification may be made.

(3) Where the Authority receives any written representation under subsection (2)(b), the Authority shall consider the representation and may —

- (a) reject the representation; or
- (b) withdraw or amend the proposed modification in accordance with the representation or otherwise, and, in either case, the Authority shall thereupon issue a direction in writing to the licensee concerned requiring that effect be given to the proposed modification specified in the notice or to such modification as subsequently amended by the Authority within a reasonable time.

(4) Any licensee who is aggrieved by a direction of the Authority under subsection (3) may, within 14 days of the receipt by the licensee of the direction, appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final:

$$\frac{n!}{r!(n-r)!}$$

It's me, hi, I'm the problem, it's me.

(5) The Authority shall not enforce a direction given under subsection (3) —

- (a) during the period referred to in subsection (4); and
- (b) whilst the appeal of any licensee is under consideration by the Minister.

(6) If no written representation is received by the Authority within the time specified under subsection (2) or if any written representation made under that subsection is subsequently withdrawn, the modification shall take effect as specified in the notice given under that subsection.

Licence fees

10.—(1) Every licensee shall pay to the Authority such licence fees as may be prescribed.

(2) Any licence fee paid to the Authority under this Act shall not be refunded or remitted if —

- (a) during the period to which the licence fee relates, the licence is revoked or suspended or lapses under section XX;
- (b) the licence fee is paid in relation to an application for the renewal of a licence and such application is withdrawn after the date on which, but for its renewal, the licence would have expired;
- (c) during the period to which the licence fee relates, the licensee fails or ceases to provide any financial advisory service; or
- (d) a prohibition order has been made against the licensee under section XX.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may, where it considers appropriate, refund or remit the whole or part of any licence fee paid to it.

Chapter 2

Test in Lower

Period of licence

11A.—(1) A licence shall be in force for a period of 3 years, or such other period as the Authority may specify in writing to the licensee, from the date of its issue under this Act.

(2) A licence that has been renewed in accordance with the provisions of this Part shall continue in force for a period of 3 years, or such other period as the Authority may specify in writing to the licensee, from the date immediately following that on which, but for its renewal, the licence would have expired.
